The 18th edition of the UniverSong Festival will take place from October 24 to 28, 2019 in Tenerife (Canary Islands - Spain). The Final Gala will be held on Sunday, October 27 and will be broadcast on TV.

Arrival date: Thursday, October 24 | Departure date: Monday, October 28

RULES 2019

1. GENERAL RULES

Each singer must send two songs. The organization of the contest will choose one of them.

The duration should not exceed 3 minutes and 30 seconds. The performances will be with live vocals and music in playback.

If the total number of participants is greater than expected and if, for TV filming needs, the Organization so decided, the contest will be held in two eliminatory rounds, passing to the Final Gala the first 12 participants classified in each category.

In the final gala, songs can be sung only by one participant. If more than one singer presents the same song, the one that has been received first in date and time during the registration will have priority.

The rest of participants should change the proposed song.

For their participation in the contest and the signing of the registration form, participants authorize the organization of the festival to use the songs presented, their names, the recording and filming of their performances at the Gala, as well as their images and photographs at the festival, for promotion and dissemination of the contest.

Also the musical bases contributed, being responsible for their origin and freeing the organizers of all responsibility in this regard, by signing the Registration Form and by their own participation in the festival.

Participants will not receive any compensation for their performances at the festival, except the prizes they may receive.
